Description

THIS DEAL HAS NOW EXPIRED

Embarking on the 10-night cruise from Melbourne to Auckland with Virgin Voyages aboard the Resilient Lady promises an unforgettable journey filled with luxury, relaxation, and captivating destinations.

As the ship sets sail from Melbourne, passengers are greeted with the promise of a remarkable adventure along the picturesque coasts of Australia and New Zealand.

The first port of call is the iconic city of Sydney, where passengers can marvel at the world-famous Opera House and Harbor Bridge. Sydney's vibrant energy and rich cultural offerings provide the perfect introduction to the cruise. As the Resilient Lady glides through the Tasman Sea, guests have the opportunity to indulge in the ship's state-of-the-art amenities, including exquisite dining options, entertainment, and wellness facilities.

The voyage continues to Picton, a charming town nestled at the head of Queen Charlotte Sound. Surrounded by stunning landscapes, Picton offers a serene escape with opportunities for nature walks and exploration of the Marlborough Sounds. The Resilient Lady provides a seamless blend of relaxation and adventure, allowing passengers to tailor their experience to their preferences.

Next on the itinerary is Napier, renowned for its Art Deco architecture and world-class wineries. The Hawke's Bay region, with its sun-drenched vineyards and cultural treasures, invites cruisers to savor local wines and immerse themselves in the unique charm of Napier.

Tauranga, with its golden beaches and geothermal wonders, beckons as the Resilient Lady makes its way to this coastal gem. Passengers can explore the geothermal landscapes of Rotorua or relax on the pristine beaches of Mount Maunganui. The cruise allows for a perfect balance of cultural exploration and leisure, with ample time to enjoy the ship's premium offerings.

As the Resilient Lady approaches its final destination, Auckland, guests are treated to the breathtaking sights of New Zealand's largest city. Auckland's skyline, framed by the iconic Sky Tower, welcomes travelers to a vibrant metropolis surrounded by stunning harbors and islands. The cruise concludes with memories of a voyage filled with unparalleled experiences, luxurious accommodations, and the warm hospitality that defines Virgin Voyages.
