Description

Enjoy 14 nights in two of Australia's most popular destinations as well as car hire so you can explore freely. Port Douglas is an amazing place to visit at any time of the year. The beautiful harbour town is one hour north of Cairns, so it is well within the tropics. For travellers that haven't visited the tropics before, Port Douglas is a wonderful base to explore: miles of tropical sandy beaches, access to the Great Barrier Reef and close to pristine tropical rainforest. Port Douglas is a luxury resort, and Macrossan Street, the main hub of the town, boasts a great variety of boutiques, restaurants, bars, galleries and designer shopping. Next, you are off to Darwin which is a go-to destination particularly during winter. Here, plenty of markets pop up during which you'll be able to grab yourself some tasty local food or pick up a hand-crafted bargain. Perhaps the most famous market is the Mindil Beach Market which operates alongside the dry season and serves as an amazing place to take in the famous Darwin sunset. Outside Darwin, the majority of visitors turn their eyes towards two of the incredible drawcards of the region: Kakadu and Litchfield National Parks. Both of these World Heritage-protected, nature-rich gems have something individual of their own to offer. With a number of attractive attributes such as flowing waterfalls, lush greenery, some of the most spectacular lightning storms in the country and incredible barramundi fishing, Darwin and its surrounding regions truly come to life.
