Description

Melbourne is an iconic Australian destination for gourmet adventures, with laneways full of buzzing restaurants, coffee shops and small bars.

Staying at Melbourne's Mövenpick Hotel is a vibrant dining destination in itself, offering an array of delicious ways to indulge. The hotel's signature Miss Mi restaurant and bar blends modern yet nostalgic elements of spice and aromatics from across the Continent to bring you a truly unique journey through Asia. Guests can enjoy locally roasted ST ALi coffee and Mövenpick's famous ice cream at Mövenpick Café located in the hotel lobby.

Right outside your hotel awaits the best of Melbourne's vibrant CBD; including hidden arcades teeming with boutique shops and restaurants, quirky cafes and laneways that hide many independent designers, street art and heritage architecture.

Visit Victoria's iconic regions of the Mornington Peninsula and the Yarra Valley on this amazing package. Experience the unique Peninsula Hot Springs, as well as lunches and wine tastings to some of Victoria's best wineries including Rochford, De Bertoli and Yering Station. Enjoy stunning vistas of rolling hills, vineyards and grazing cows on the way.
